Competition deadline 23 February!

“ Welcome to the February edition of the VSH Update! We have added two exciting new titles to MyLibrary this month, providing engaging reading and learning material for children. As always, get in touch if you want any more information about our products and competitions. ”

Rachel Maton, Editor

Early Years 1, 2, 3

1, 2 Something New is our latest resource for Early Years and KS1 that introduces children to numbers. An audiovisual story and fun activities helps children count to 10. They can also practice saying the numbers using the recording feature.

Fun with Folk Tales

Another new addition to MyLibrary is Folk Tales, a collection of folk stories from all over the world including Indonesia, Mali, Brazil, India and Korea. The illustrated stories provide fun reading material as well as quizzes, writing exercises and creative activities.

Folk Tales is also a fantastic way of introducing children to different cultures and experiences.

Last call for competition entries

The deadline is looming for our competition for Virtual Schools and children in care! CreativeMe is a great way to encourage children in care to be creative. Entrants can write poems and short stories on any topic, and winners will receive a certificate and book token. Winning entries will also be published in a mobile resource for nimbl!

The nimblsteps progress award is another excellent way of recognising children in your Virtual School who have made significant personal progress using nimbl. You can nominate as many children you want – simply send us a description of why you think they deserve the award.

- Submit your entries for both competitions by
- 23 February. For more information go to:
- www.pearson.co.uk/competitions

A growing community

Children in care across 98 Virtual Schools are using nimbl resources.
