Introducing MyLife – developing life skills and PSHE

“ Welcome to the March edition of the VSH Update – and what an exciting month it’s shaping up to be! We are pleased to announce the launch of a new library for young people, MyLife, which we think will be invaluable to children in care. We are also beginning the judging for CreativeMe and looking forward to the NAVSH annual conference! ”

Rachel Maton, Editor

Introducing our new library: MyLife

MyLife brings together new and existing resources for PSHE and life skills. MyLife resources help young people understand and address important life issues such as money, bullying, e-safety and drugs. For Virtual Schools with existing MyLibrary subscriptions, the MyLife library can be added for a discounted price.

Developing self-awareness

Self-Awareness is a new publication available in the MyLife library. This publication prompts the learner to reflect on their own experiences and behaviours, heightening their self-awareness. Through greater understanding of themselves, they will be more likely to affect positive change.

CreativeMe judging begins

We’ve had nearly 50 entries for the CreativeMe writing competition, and judging is now beginning in earnest! Among the judges is Roger Hurn, children’s author and Carrie Herbert, founder of Red Balloon Learner Centre Group. Good luck to all the children who entered!

We’ll see you at the NAVSH conference!

As readers will know, the NAVSH annual conference takes place on this month on Wednesday 21 March and Thursday 22 March. We’re excited to meet with Virtual School staff to hear about your work with children in care and how you have been using nimbl!

A growing community

Children in care across 99 Virtual Schools are using nimbl resources.

New addition: North Somerset
